L. Scott & Co., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz—

1. The Leader Quarterly [Conservative.]

2. The Edinburgh Review [Whig.]

3. The North British Review [Free Church.]

4. The Westminster Review [Liberal.]

5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine [Tory.]

These periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but political forms are only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivaled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

Early Copies.

The receipt of ADVANCE COPIES from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
